The Department of Education joins the Department of Health (DOH) in the celebration of World Rabies Day on September 28, 2015 with the theme "End Rabies Together". The activity is in accordance with R.A. 9482 s. 2007, "Anti Rabies Act of 2007" and A.O. no. 10 s. 2011.

All public elementary and secondary schools are encouraged to participate in the celebration by undertaking poster-slogan making contest which will highlight the celebration.

The Objective of the slogan are as follows:

- Increase awareness of rabies prevention in schools and their community.
- Showcase the artistic ability and talent of Grades 4-9 students in poster slogan making, while promoting rabies awareness.
- Encourage involvement of teachers, pupils and communities in the World Rabies Day.

Deadline of submission of entries will be on or before September 28 2015. Enclosed is the Mechanics and Criteria for the contest.

For your information & compliance.
