Subject: SCHOOL-BASED CAPABILITY-BUILDING SYMPOSIUM
IN BEGINNING READING FOR PARENTS

Date: June 28, 2018

1. Parental involvement is the ultimate forecaster of early literacy success and future academic achievement. However, most parents of our beginning readers don't give emphasis on the importance of reading. Moreover, they lack knowledge and skills to teach beginning reading.

Thus, this office expects all public elementary school heads to conduct series of school-based capability-building symposium in beginning reading for parents starting this August.

2. Proposals with the training matrix for the said colloquium must be submitted to EPS – English Agnes P. Bacugan on or before July 27.
3. Immediate compliance to this Memorandum is desired.
