From: Office of the Schools Division Superintendent

Subject: 2018 DIVISION SCHOOLS PRESS CONFERENCE (DSPC) OFFICIAL and OVERALL RESULTS
(Individual and Group Contests)

Date: November 14, 2018

1. The Schools Division office congratulates all the winning campus journalists and school paper advisers/coaches for 2018 Division Schools Press Conference, held in partnership with the Local Government Unit, November 8-9 at CSI Stadia.

All division personnel and other stakeholders are hereby commended for their magnanimous support to this annual undertaking.

Earnest gratitude is also extended to the admirable leadership and generosity of the City Mayor Belen T. Fernandez for sponsoring this year's DSPC and other journalism activities.

2. Again, congratulations to the OVERALL TOP 3 PERFORMING SCHOOLS (Combined points of individual and Group Contests) in the elementary and secondary level!

(Points for the judging of school papers are not included in the computation of overall ranking).

The results in the Individual/Group Contests and School Publication in English and Filipino (Elementary and Secondary) are attached in this memorandum.

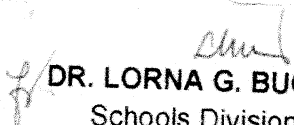

Awarding Ceremony is set on Nov. 22, Abong na Alumni at 1pm. Coaches of Top 5 winning campus journalists with their parents and supporters are expected to attend and celebrate the victory.

Cliniquing for DSPC winners will be on Nov. 23 at WCES II covered court, 8am-5pm.

3. All winning coaches are enjoined to conduct rigid school-based sessions/trainings for their campus journalists in preparation for the 2018 Regional Schools Press Conference (RSPC) to be held at SDO - Pangasina I, Lingayen on Dec. 7-8. Please see attached regional memorandum.

4. This office is confident that with the inherent potentials, intense trainings of campus journalists and generous support of our beloved Mayor, we will be adjudged as Champion of RSPC 2018 after garnering last year's 2nd best title.

5. For information, guidance and strict compliance.
