National Workshop / Writeshop Series on

INTANGIBLE CULTURAL HERITAGE-BASED Learning Resources

March 13, 2019

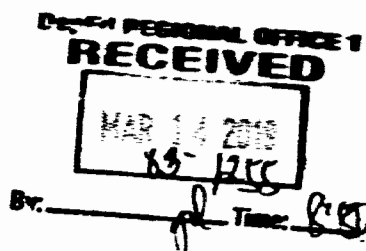

DR. MALCOLM S. GARMA

Regional Director

Department of Education – Region I

Dear Dr. Garma,

Warmest greetings!

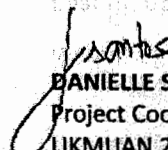

In support of the Memorandum of Agreement (MOA) between the National Commission for Culture and the Arts (NCCA) and the Department of Education (DepEd), which was signed on February 9, 2013, the NCCA through its Philippine Cultural Education Program (PCEP), the Department of Education, the ARTIST-PARS Association Inc. in cooperation with the Arts Research and Training Institute in Southern Tagalog Inc. (ARTIST Inc.) through its Sanaysining Arts School Program will conduct the LIKMUAN National Writeshop and Workshop on Intangible Cultural Heritage-based Learning Resource on April – May 2019 at University of the Philippines Los Banos, Laguna.

In relation to the above-mentioned, we would like to request your humble office to encourage and inform your constituents to participate and send teacher-participants. Your memorandum letter for this project among your constituents would be of big help in ensuring a wider participation of teachers.

Attached are the details of the project. Should you have any concerns or queries, you may reach us at (049) 536 6680 (tel), 0995-756-7311 (globe), 0932-573-0457 (sun), or via e-mail at parslikmuan2019@gmail.com.

We are looking forward to your favourable response. Thank you!

Sincerely,

DANIELLE SANTOS
Project Coordinator

National Workshop / Writeshop Series on

INTANGIBLE CULTURAL HERITAGE-BASED Learning Resources

The National Commission for Culture and the Arts through its Philippine Cultural Education Program (PCEP), the Department of Education (DEPED), the ARTIST-PARS Association Inc. in cooperation with the Arts Research and Training Institute in Southern Tagalog Inc. (ARTIST Inc.) through its Sanaysining Arts School Program will conduct the LIKMUAN National Writeshop and Workshop on Intangible Cultural Heritage-based Learning Resource on April – May 2019 at University of the Philippines Los Banos, Laguna.

The national writeshop and workshop aim to institutionalize and intensify the intangible heritage conservation plan through continuing professional education, research and dissemination, production of learning resources and lesson exemplars, and media-based documentation program in intangible cultural heritage education.

Specifically, the writeshop and workshop would train teachers to --

- a. Develop competently learning resources on intangible heritage in the various areas of basic education, two (2) teachers per level from Grades 1-12. There would be at least four (4) teachers from each island-cluster of the public schools. Only six slots will be opened for teachers of private schools.
- b. Teach intangible cultural heritage in the contextualized, localized and indigenized basic education curriculum. This will be delivered through a series of three island-cluster workshops, each with forty (40) teacher-participants.
- c. Culturally informed and culturally sensitive learning resources (workbooks, activity sheets, AVP, learning module, lesson plan, etc.) on intangible cultural heritage integrated in the different subject areas of basic education for each grade level covering several lessons under one unit

1. Intended Participants for the Writeshop and Workshop.

Aspiring participants for the writeshop should satisfy the following criteria:

- a. A full time DepEd teacher
- b. Must have rendered a minimum of three years of full-time teaching in basic education
- c. Must have a portfolio of developed instructional materials

Applicants must submit the following:

- a. Certificate of teaching engagement in DepEd/Application form (grade level)
- b. An e-portfolio of developed instructional materials
- c. A concept proposal for a learning resource on intangible heritage, with the following, but not limited to, the following elements: --
 - c.1. A short description of the learning resource and its reference to the DepEd curriculum guide

- c.2 A brief description of the intangible heritage that will be incorporated in the learning resource
- c.3. References/sources

The outputs of the writeshop would be presented and used as resource for workshops. A three-day workshop on teaching intangible heritage participated by 40 teachers will be conducted in each of the three island clusters (total of 120 teachers).

In the interest of strengthening cultural education in Grades 11 and 12, a significant number of Senior High School teachers will be selected for this workshop.
