Date: March 6, 2019
Subject: ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION TO THE FORUM ON MOTHER TONGUE-BASED MULTI-LINGUALE EDUCATION

- The need to understand the principles in teaching using mother tongue-based multilingual education is imperative. The Schools Division Office would want to ensure that kindergarten and primary teachers have the working knowledge and skills in delivering seamless and relevant learning event in the classroom.
- A half-day Forum on MTB-MLE will be conducted on March 14, 2019 from 8:00 am to 11:00 am to be held at the Division Training Center.
- The SDO has invited Dr. Diane Decker to shed light on this matter in order to equip teachers. Dr. Decker spent 25 years in the Philippines focusing on language in education issues, first among the Lubuagan Kalinga group and then at the national level across many minority and majority language groups. Diane has also spent ten years working across Asia on language in education issues.
- Participants to this forum are Elementary School Heads, Kindergarten and Grades 1-3 Teachers. Each elementary school is given three slots.
- Representatives from each elementary school are advised to register on or before March 11, 2019 using this link: <http://deped.in/SDODCmtbmleforum19> or the QR Code:
- Please be guided accordingly.
