1. The U.S. Embassy will sponsor a five-week E-Teacher Program for the course Content-based Instruction (CBI) which will begin on June 25, 2019, Tuesday and end on August 20, 2019, Tuesday.
2. CBI by World Learning is designed for the many English teachers around the world who are called upon by their institutions to lead CBI courses. This course will aid teachers in prioritizing the relative importance of English learning versus content learning objectives, choosing classroom materials, and deciding how and when to transfer their English teaching techniques to the CBI context. It covers theory on CBI pedagogy and guides participants in preparing lessons and curricula for CBI courses, as well as workshops to share this knowledge with colleagues. Participants will learn CBI-specific methods for every phase of teaching, including syllabus design, lesson planning, materials selection and adaptation, assessment, and feedback.
3. In this connection, the following teachers are duly endorsed by this Office through the Human Resource and Development Section to participate and complete the said course:
 - a. Rowella L. Arenas – Dagupan City National High School -Senior High School
 - b. Joane Ramos Calugay – Lasip Grande Elementary School
 - c. Vanessa E. Petrola - West Central Elementary School
 - d. Alfred A. De Vera – Crael National High School
 - e. Michelle Mina Felstead – Bonuan Boquig National High School
4. Identified participants must:
 - meet with Dr. Mitchellene V. Rivo, SEPS-HRD for the course orientation and to self-register by April 29, 2019, Monday; and
