February 20, 2020

Dear Dr. Fernandez:

We have the honor to invite your English teachers to an English Reading workshop. The workshop will showcase our call center's English language training. Farmout will hold two workshops at our training room. First batch is on February 29, 2020 and second batch will be on March 07, 2020.

Participants will get to learn new ways to measure English competency. This benchmark enables us to check the effectiveness of English training on students. Farmout will also share teacher tools. These tools create digital curriculum, content sourcing, and gamification. This training makes English learning fun, shorter and enjoyable.

We have restricted the number of participants to 20, to fit the length and the intended depth of the meeting. So, we would appreciate if you can reply with the list of participants for the workshop.

Participants must bring with them:

1. Smartphone with camera and earphone
2. Notepad

We look forward to a successful working relationship with you.

Respectfully yours,

Maileen S. Ferrer
Finance and HR Manager
