ASDS revs up reading advocacy

By: John Silvester A. Alipio

Assistant Schools Division Superintendent Ma. Criselda G. Ocang with the support of the Schools Division Superintendent Aguedo C. Fernandez, intensifies reading program in Filipino and English in line with Every Child a Reader Program (ECARP) and Bawat Bata Bumabasa (3Bs) advocacies.

Teacher Danica sounds the letter as the child listens online.

The reading program involves the English and Filipino teachers. Dr. Agnes B. Royulada oversees the English aspects while Dr. Gemma M. Erfelo takes charge of the Filipino aspect.

Juan P. Guadiz Elementary School headed by Mr. Jose Q. Taparo and Federico N.

Ceralde Integrated School headed by Mr. John Silvester A. Alipio would be under the mentorship of EPS Royulada while Gregorio Del Pilar Elementary School led by Engr. David F. Resultay and Carael Elementary School headed by Ms. Agnes T. Calicdan will be handled by EPS Erfelo.

The program started with the printing and compilation of Phil-IRI Results Posttest S.Y. 2019-2020. Based on the Phil-IRI Posttest Results, participating learners in the five-month reading program were identified.

Profiling of learners was conducted as well as with the reading teachers and coordinators in order to determine their skill in handling learners with reading difficulty.

During the program, teachers administer validated reading drills online.

The Parent-Teacher Association (PTA) also participated in the program and virtual meetings with them were also conducted for the orientation of the reading program.

The reading program will culminate on May 14 and the findings of this program will be closely analyzed to arrive at qualified recommendations.

ASDS Ocang, EPS Erfelo and EPS Royulada monitor the school's readiness in the implementation of the reading program.
