dealing with correspondence; answering phone calls and directing all incoming calls to appropriate parties promptly and efficiently; arranging travel and accommodation of the SDS; and carrying out routine duties and responsibilities. For a time, she also worked as BAC Secretariat.

“The biggest challenge I encountered was during our preparation for the ISO certification. We passed through several trainings and workshops. We worked sacrificially 24/7. We walked through knee-high floods due to weather increment which lasted for several weeks,” she said while reminiscing her experiences.

“Our efforts were crowned with success when SDO Dagupan City was granted ISO 9001:2015 Certification. I was the Central Document Controller who kept and worked on documented information,” she added.

She believes that all good things must come to an end. Her 23 years of service in the SDO Dagupan City has ended but her heart goes on with its beautiful and good memories. And now she plans of creating more memories with her family.

“While still at the peak of my strength and energy, I want to grab the opportunity of spending so much of my time with my family. Currently, I am enjoying the company of my children and my husband on his work-related travels. Just recently, I joined his travel to Zamboanga del Norte, Dipolog Pagadian City, Zamboanga del Sur, with a side trip to Dapitan City and Dakak Park and Beach Resort. We also went to Legazpi and Naga City, Albay. I look forward to be with him again as he travels to different places.”

Ma'am Angie is married to a resettlement specialist consultant, Marco Antonio Liwag, who is a Dagupeno.
