1. Pursuant to Republic Act No. 10661, The National Children's Month (NCM) or also known as "Buwan ng mga Bata" in the Philippines is annually celebrated every November to commemorate the adoption of the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child (UNCRC) on the 20th day of November, 1989. It seeks to sustain the promotion and protection of children's rights.
2. In line with this, the office announces the conduct of the Children's Summit 2024 on November 6-8, 2024 at Jimmy L. Fernandez Center (CSI Stadia), Lucao District, Dagupan City. This year's theme is "Break the Prevalence, End the Violence: Protecting Children, Creating a Safe Philippines!"
3. This activity aims to ;
  - Enhance understanding of children's rights and the importance of creating a safe environment for all children in the Philippines.
  - Foster partnerships among various stakeholders, including educators, parents, government agencies, and NGOs, to address issues of violence against children.
  - Provide a platform for sharing successful strategies and initiatives aimed at preventing violence and protecting children's welfare.
  - Encourage active participation of children and youth in discussions and activities aimed at advocating for their rights and safety.
  - Create and disseminate materials and resources that support child protection initiatives and educate communities about violence prevention.

<https://tinyurl.com/2024ChildrensSummitContest> by October 25, 2024.

For further assistance, you may contact the facilitator, Dr. Alfred B. Gonzales, at 09635160601.

Note: Late registrations will not be accepted.

- ✓ Participants are required to submit a brief description of their booth, which will be presented by the booth coordinator during the judging process.

✓ Objective:

The booth concept contest aims to engage participants in creatively showcasing children's rights through innovative designs and interactive elements. This platform should raise awareness and promote advocacy across the Schools Division and Local Government Unit of Dagupan City. Booths should emphasize the importance of children's rights by highlighting real-life stories, empowering young voices, and inspiring action. The goal is to ensure that every child's voice is heard and respected.

Aspects of Children's Rights to be Highlighted:

1. Right to life and identity
2. Right to family
3. Right to education
4. Right to development
5. Right to food
6. Right to shelter

7. Right to leisure
8. Protection from abuse, violence, and the right to live in a peaceful community
9. Right to governmental assistance
10. Right to expression

- ✓ Use sustainable and eco-friendly materials whenever possible to promote environmental responsibility.
- ✓ Include interactive elements (e.g., games, quizzes, discussions) to actively engage visitors and encourage them to learn more about children's rights.
- ✓ Ensure the booth provides clear and accurate information about children's rights. All content must reference credible sources to maintain reliability and trustworthiness.
- ✓ Create an attractive and inviting booth layout that captures attention and encourages participation. Visual appeal and functionality are important.
- ✓ Booth size, setup dates, and venue information will be communicated by the event facilitator. Be prepared to adapt your design based on the space provided.
- ✓ A panel of judges will evaluate each booth based on creativity, relevance, interactivity, design, and content accuracy. Any violations of the rules listed above may result in a 1-point deduction per violation. The decision of the judging panel is final and cannot be appealed.

Judging Criteria:

Creativity and Innovation Unique ideas and originality in presentation.	30%
Educational Value Effectiveness in conveying information about children's rights.	30%
Engagement Ability to attract and engage visitors.	20%
