Dear Undersecretary Cabral:

Greetings from the Ateneo Center for English Language Teaching!

I am writing to request for your support and endorsement of our upcoming FREE Webinar Series titled, ACELT-DepEd Webinar Series 2025 on Teaching English in Multilingual Settings (TEEMS) scheduled on the following dates: March 1, 2025, April 26, 2025, and May 31, 2025 (Saturdays) at 10:00-11:30AM via Zoom.

The free webinars aim to help our English Language Teachers (ELT) gain a better understanding of the teaching of English in a multilingual context like the Philippines. We hope to gather academic leaders, administrative officers, researchers, and language teachers all over the country to take part and engage in a meaningful discourse that will hopefully positively impact the academic performance of our target learners.

ACELT has invited the following educators and consultants to help forward our objectives:

Panel Member:

Ms. Ayyette Ferriols
Supervising Education Program Specialist for English and Mother Tongue
Department of Education

Dr. Merry Ruth Morauda Gutierrez
Full Professor
Philippine Normal University

Bro. Roderick Motril Aguirre
Academic and Literacy Director

For your reference, below are the details of the each webinar:

Webinar 1: March 1, 2025

WEBINAR 1: NAVIGATING OLD AND NEW DEPED LANGUAGE POLICIES: BRIDGING THE GAP IN TEACHING ENGLISH IN MULTILINGUAL SETTINGS

This webinar for school administrators shall focus on the current language policies in the Philippine educational system and how a first language-based multilingual strategy in teaching English is prioritized to improve learning outcomes and literacy despite policy-related changes. Key discussions shall include administrative practices that support theory-based curriculum delivery, such as translanguaging techniques in the classroom. The session shall underscore the crucial role of school administrators in aligning pedagogy with policy and creating effective language learning environments that honor local contexts and prepare learners for global opportunities.

Webinar 2: April 26, 2025

WEBINAR 2: TEACHING STRATEGIES FOR MULTILINGUAL ENGLISH LEARNERS
(KEY STAGES 1 AND 2)

This webinar for English teachers in Key Stages 1 and 2 shall focus on evidence-based teaching practices specifically designed for multilingual learners, with an emphasis on early literacy and language development. Key discussions shall include teaching reading strategies for literacy formation and development, leveraging L1 as a resource for L2 acquisition, and fostering communicative competence through real-world contexts. The session is designed to empower educators with adaptable strategies to enhance learners' English proficiency while preserving cultural and linguistic diversity.

Webinar 3: May 31, 2025

WEBINAR 3: TEACHING STRATEGIES FOR MULTILINGUAL ENGLISH LEARNERS
(KEY STAGE 3)

This webinar for English teachers in Key Stage 3 shall focus on teaching techniques that will help develop students' multiliteracies as they navigate different text types, media, and modalities. Key discussions shall include genre-based pedagogy and developing metalinguistic awareness through translanguaging. The session is designed to help teachers design engaging lessons that foster students' capacity to analyze, evaluate, and create texts for a range of audiences, purposes, and contexts.

If you have any questions, please feel free to email me at csuarez@ateneo.edu. We will highly appreciate your support, USec. Cabral. Thank you very much!

Respectfully,

Dr. Cecilia A. Suarez
