time and efforts from Dagupan City National High School under the leadership and supervision of DR. WILLY U. GUIEB, Principal IV. The team shall coordinate with concerned offices and schools to ensure that the video accurately reflects the Division's programs, projects, activities, and accomplishments while maintaining high production standards and adherence to official protocols.

4. All schools are hereby requested to submit high-quality photographs and/or video clips showcasing their emerging and innovative practices that promote learner, learner and personnel protection, welfare, and holistic development. These materials shall be submitted to the Office of Dr. Guieb for review and possible inclusion in the official Division National Anthem video production

5. To ensure that instructional time is protected and learning delivery is not disrupted, all activities related to the production of the video shall strictly comply with DepEd Order No. 009, s. 2026 titled "Guidelines in the Implementation of Three Term School Calendar" and other existing policies on the conduct of school and Division activities. Video shooting, documentation, rehearsals, and related production activities shall, as much as practicable, be conducted during Saturdays, Sundays, holidays, or outside regular class hours.

6. Immediate and widest dissemination of and compliance with this memorandum are desired.
